Full Particulars of the Disturbances between the Americans and Chilians, at the Mines!

The following interesting communication, from our correspondent at Stockton, was promptly laid upon our table, by Messrs. Todd & Bryant's Express; but, unfortunately, too late for us to give it publication in our last.

The difficulties between the Americans and Chilians, on the Calaveras, have ended in the shedding of blood. In the list of murders committed by the Chilians we regret, especially, to see that of an innocent old man, who had nothing whatever to do with the dispute between the parties.

It is well known that a feeling of jealousy has long existed between the Americans and foreigners at the mines, and this bloody affray cannot fail, we think, to hasten a disastrous crisis. It is probable that the unjustifiable and sanguinary measures taken by the Chilians will arouse a feeling, in the breasts of Americans, which will lead to their forcible expulsion from, at least, the southern mines. It is to be hoped, however, that the well known law-abiding disposition of our countrymen will save us from being compelled to chronicle any illegal or sanguinary steps taken to effect this end.

If we understand our correspondent aright, the warrant was issued by the American authorities, and placed in the hands of Chilians, for the arrest of American citizens. If this was the case, such a course was undoubtedly wholly injudicious in itself, and likely to produce the calamity which has arisen. We trust, however, that there is some mistake in this, and that the matter will be satisfactorily explained hereafter.

STOCKTON, Dec. 31, 1849.

Dear News: Intelligence of bloody and tragical doings reached this place a few days since, from the Calaveras diggings. A disturbance has taken place between a party of Americans and a party of Chilians. Some three or more Americans have been killed, and several wounded! I had made every effort to get you the correct account of the affair earlier than the present, but without success. The disturbance occurred on the night of the 27th, and, by the following account, which I have procured from one of the prisoners, who was brought to Stockton, under a warrant issued by the authorities of this place, (the complaint having been made by the Chilians,) it will be seen that one of the most barbarous and cruel affairs on record has taken place. By some means, the warrant given by the authorities of this place was placed in the hands of the Chilians, to make "due and faithful return thereon;" which officers of authority knew no other way of executing it save by the use of pistols and bowie knives There is culpable carelessness somewhere, in this matter. Why send a party of foreigners to arrest Americans—especially foreigners who could not speak the English language, and who even did not take with them an interpreter?

They took the Americans—bound their hands behind them, and then compelled them to walk, in the fear of pistols and knives, nearly one day and one night, before the Americans knew that their persecutors had a warrant for their arrest. Shameful, indeed, is it, that an American was not sent to make the arrest, if there was any need of it, and if there was none, then culpable, indeed, is the carelessness or short-sightedness that placed such an instrument in the hands of foreigners. But it appears, in the course of their march to Stockton, (detailed in the account I send you herewith) that the Chilians dropped off, one by one, from fatigue, and that, finally, they were so reduced in numbers that the Americans took them prisoners.

While the Americans were conducting their new prisoners to Stockton, they were met by a party of Americans from Stockton, who had gone out, on the first report of bloodshed and wrong in the mountains, to give succor. This party took the Chilians, and carried them back to the Calaveras camp, there to answer to the charge of murder. Four of the Americans, who had been brought thus far towards this place, under the warrant given to the Chilians, came on and surrendered themselves to the authorities as prisoners. After waiting about here for a day or two, asking and pleading the court to do something with them, they were finally told that they were at liberty to go where and when they pleased. Their names names were R. T. Gill, Jas. G. Ayres, Franklin Haut and Benedict Jackson.

The following is the statement of Dr. R. T. Gill, who was one of the prisoners taken by the Chilians:

In some of the numerous gulches of the Calaveras, where there were supposed to be rich diggings, several Americans were making their winter quarters. While engaged in building their cabins, a Spaniard came and settled near them, bringing with him about fourteen peons. But knowing himself to be an intruder, and feeling insecure with the small number with him, he obtained more of his country men to come and settle with him, numbering from sixty to one hundred in all. The Americans took the matter into consideration, and gave them a peaceful and quiet notice to leave the place, allowing them eight days for their departure. They not complying with the notice, the Americans went to them in a body, and gave them notice to leave immediately, notifying them, at the same time, that if they did not, they would be fined two ounces a day, apiece, for as long as they remained afterwards. The person in authority over the foreigners replied that he would not leave if a thousand Americans were to come, or something to that intent. His reply was in Spanish, and not perfectly understood. He, however, went to see Judge Collier, the American Alcalde, and asked if it was absolutely necessary for them to leave, and requested time to enquire into the legality of the requisition, and have time to remove his goods. Fifteen days were given him for this purpose, on condition that no more work should be done until the question was settled. A few days after, some Americans going to work, found them digging. The Spaniards, presenting pistols, declared that they would shoot any American who attempted to work there.

The Judge then ordered a force to arrest them, and bring them before him. The peons were then fined one ounce each, and the time extended. In a few days they were found again at work, and again abused the Americans working near them.

On the evening of the 27th, about half past seven o'clock, they went to the various American tents, commencing with those nearest, and, without presenting any authority, seized and bound the inmates. The writer was chatting in an adjoining log cabin at the time. His attention was arrested by the opening of the door; and seeing, indistictly, in the dark, a number of persons presenting fire arms, he enquired what they wanted. They immediately seized and bound him, and exclaimed, "Vamos por Stockton." He complained of the pain, caused by his bonds, when one of them presented a cocked pistol to his head and threatened to shoot him if he continued his complaints. The Americans in the adjoining cabins were also seized and bound. One of these was an old man, sixty-four years of age. Another individual hearing them cursing him, turned in time to dodge from the pistol which was aimed at his head. The ball entered the breast of one of his captive comrades. They then enquired where the Judge's cabin was They were told that it was several rods below. Seizing an axe, they went to the cabin, which they supposed to be the Judge's, stove the door in, and immediately fired upon the inmates, killing one old man on the spot. Another person received a ball in one side, which lodged in the opposite; another received a stab in the breast, and also a pistol ball through the cheek; and another was shot through the arm, and stabbed in the ribs. He was then examined, and finding that he was unarmed, they dragged him from the cabin and knocked him down with a gun, cutting his head to the skull, and rendering him senseless by the blow. At another cabin, a boy was cut in the head by a knife. The wounded men were then brought to the other cabins above; and the writer had, by hard entreaty, prevailed upon one of the Chilians to let him examine the man shot in the breast, when the other wounded men were brought in, and he had only time sufficient to see the probable mortality of the wound, when he was ordered out and again bound. He then urged that they should send for their physician, who had gone, they said, for an Alcalde called Scullins. Soon, however, they marched the prisoners to the place where Scullins lived, distant about 8 miles; they halted about two hundred yards from his tent, and went after the Alcalde and the physician, who refused to come, and we were forced to return, crossing and recrossing the Calaveras, on a log, with hands tied, some of us falling in, others choosing to wade at once about middle deep. They then marched us to their camp, and then down, through mud and water, towards Stockton; passing the Double Springs, they declared that they would shoot the first that spoke. On our journey next morning, we came to a tent, six miles this side of the Double Springs, kept by an Englishman and an Irishman, who gave the Chilians hot coffee, &c., but gave us nothing. But on our begging for something, the miserable wretches gave us two or three cups of cold coffee, a few small pieces of cold pork, and a handful of musty hard bread—about enough for three men. We numbered sixteen. They then marched us twelve miles to the Calaveras, and were not intending to let us stop a moment—they having provided themselves, plentifully, with crackers, cheese and jerked beef. But we begged hard, and some men coming up, and speaking in our favor, we were given some crackers and cheese, the Chilians grumbling at our being permitted to have food. Here we had to cross the river again, and the Chilians debated whether they should pay our ferriage, or drive us through the water, (about five feet deep.) After crossing, we passed along by Mr. Rainey's tent, at which place they had promised to stop, in order to dress the wounds of the four men who had been brought along. They did not stop. Farther along, they passed a tent where a man was loading a gun. They at once became suspicious. Soon after, this man passed us on horseback, at full gallop, and said, "Take care of yourselves, boys!" The Chilians enquired of one of our party what he said. He replied, "he gave a compliment." They then enquired of the writer, who replied that he could not tell them in Spanish.

They then told the writer, that should they see any evidence of an attempt to rescue, they would first shoot him and then the others, who could speak a little Spanish. They marched us about half a mile farther on the road, and turned off to a Mexican tent, where I believe they were told, that there was a party of eighteen Americans waiting to rescue us on the other road. Having tarried but a short time at this tent, they left the road, struck for the Calaveras, and marched us along its banks, through the brush, long grass and mud, looking for a place to recross and strike another road. Every little noise would frighten them, and they would stop and change their direction. We finally reached the road, at which they were very much frightened, and turned for the East. They then marched hither and thither undecided; their numbers continually falling off from fatigue—three or four of their mules had also given out. About 10 o'clock they halted in a ravine, completely exhausted, made a little fire for themselves, and permitted us to lay down, releasing the hands of some of us, whose favor they began to court. Not having even a blanket apiece, we lay for two hours in our wet clothes. So cold and wet was the ground, that when we arose, we found ourselves stiff with the rheumatism, our feet blistered, and our clothes wet and frozen. There were only two men on guard awake. We awoke the rest and asked them to start on, which they reluctantly assented to. Soon, however, the old man began to fail from cold and hunger; and at last he sat down, telling them to shoot him if they wished, for that he could go no farther. He had asked them in the evening the privilege of riding on one of their mules, which they refused. Finding that he could not walk and fearing to leave him, they let him ride; but he was so weak that he could not ride far, and had to be taken off; a fire was then made to warm him. The Chilians were so stiff with cold and fatigue, that they also made a fire, being so far from the road that they did not much fear detection. Upon resuming our journey they again struck the road, but immediately left it and marched far from it, in a direction contrary to Stockton, when, coming to a lagoon, they tried to pass it by going North-east. (Stockton lying South-west.) Finding that they could not, and that their company was continually diminishing, we told them they must go directly to Stockton, and that if they were afraid to take us we would take them. On promising to secure them from harm, if possible, they consented. We struck for the road, and their leader, who the day previous had walked by my side with a pistol constantly presented at me, now said that he could go no farther; but feeling that he was necesary, we got him on a mule, and marched him along in our custody! Finally reaching a tent on the road, we found, to our great surprise, that we were nine miles from Stockton. We supposed that we were within two miles of the place. Going up to the tent, we found a company who had come to rescue us, and had been searching all night for us. They insisted that the Chilians should deliver up their arms and be bound; this the Chilians resisted, but in vain. We were then informed that we could not take them to Stockton, which we were very desirous of doing, and they were taken from us, and marched back to the mountains to answer to the charge of murder!

We came on to Stockton, and delivered ourselves up as prisoners. Here we ascertained that the warrant for our arrest, which was exhibited on the afternoon of the previous day, for the first time, had been obtained by illegal means; and no one appearing against us, although the complainant was in town, we were honorably discharged.

Two men were left behind in the cabin—one very sick with fever, the other badly wounded—yet the Chilians refused to leave any one to attend them. One of their own number, whom they had shot accidentally; while firing upon the inmates of the cabin in which they perpetrated their most serious butchery, they left unburied. Mr. Starr, the person badly wounded in the cabin, was found dead the next day. He was an inoffensive man, and leaves a family of ten children to mourn his loss. The other person shot dead, was also aged, and leaves five children to lament his loss. The occupants of this cabin—where the bloodiest part of the scene took place—never had anything to do with the matter in question. They evidently supposed that it was the Judge's cabin and undoubtedly thought they were venting their rage upon him and his friends.

The following paper, addressed to the authorities at Stockton, accompanied the letter of our correspondent:

To the Authorities of Stockton, or others having lawful authority over the citizens of the United States residing at the Calaveras Diggings:

Humbly complaining—sheweth to the said authority that the undersigned, duly authorised by the citizens of the United States mining in this region of country, to make a fair and truthful representation of the facts and the circumstances which induce us to present this for your consideration, do hereby make the following statement, in pursuance thereto. Being in an isolated part of the country, and deeming it necessary to form rules and regulations, for our better government, they formed such as were deemed pertinent to the occasion, and, in due form, elected me, as a fit person, to preserve order, and carry said resolutions into effect.

It having been represented to me that a Chilian camp, represented by a Dr. —, five to six miles distant, had driven citizens of the United States from their place of labor, threatening to shoot and use knives, at the same time; that horses had been stolen, gold washers broken up during the night, and other depredations committed, we deemed it necessary to take the thing in hand; accordingly sent for their chief (the said Doctor), and, after consulting, it was agreed that they should leave their present location. They are foreigners, and we view it as an infringement of our rights—due time was given them to leave, with all their effects; fifteen days allowed for their removal. The time passed, and yet they continued their depredations.

In pursuance of those resolutions, it became necessary to urge their leaving, and, in order to carry that resolution into effect, they were fined, in the penalty of five hundred and twelve dollars. Until last night no further steps had been taken. This morning we have been informed (and have the facts before us) that three citizens have been cruelly murdered! during the last night, and, so far as we know, others have shared the like fate. In addition, they have taken and carried off, by force, a number of others as prisoners. We, therefore, as citizens of the United States, desiring to act in a manner free from all charges of criminality and violence, and to submit ourselves to the proper authorities of our country, and to meet and confront our enemies and the enemies to good order, despatch to you the foregoing statement of facts, deeming it our interest and duty so to do. Abiding the lawful result of proceedings now pending, we remain, &c.,

Your humble servant,
L. A. COLLINS, Judge.

From the Legislature.—The Governor's Veto.

Our latest date from San Jose, is December 30th.

On December 24th, in the Assembly, the Speaker laid before the House a letter from Col. J. D. Stevenson, presenting to the State of California, the flags of the regiment which he commanded in the late war with Mexico.

On motion of Mr. Stowell, the thanks of the House were directed to be given to Col. J. D. Stevenson for the donation.

Three bills were also reported. One by Mr. Walthall to provide for defraying the expenses of the State; another by Mr. Cardwell to incorporate Sacramento City; and a third by Mr. Tingley to provide for the election of State Treasurer. A Joint Resolution was offered by Mr. Tingley concerning the sale of lands by Alcaldes and Town Councils, prohibiting the same. This was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Randolph offered a Joint Resolution authorising the Governor to appoint pilots for the ports of California. This was passed. Nothing more of importance was done. The House then adjourned to Friday, December 28th.

In the Senate, on December 24th, Mr. Green offered a resolution relative to the Public Printing. Nothing farther of public interest has taken place in this branch of the Legislature since our last accounts, except that on Thursday, December 27th, Mr. M. J. Vallejo, Senator elect from the Sonoma district, was duly qualified and took his seat.

In the Assembly, on December 28th, Mr. Crittenden, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill defining the duties and powers of State Treasurer and Comptroller; also, another organizing the Supreme Court of California, a Joint Resolution classifying the Justices of said court, and one touching the archives. From the same committee to whom were referred certain Joint Resolutions concerning the sale of lands and town lots by Alcaldes and Town Councils, a report was received, recommending their indefinite postponement, on the ground that the subject was not within the reach of State legislation. This report was agreed to.

The next day, (December 29th,) the Speaker of the House announced Messrs. Tingley, Randolph, Bradford, Hughes and Martin, as the Standing Committee on Elections. Mr. Crittenden, from the Judiciary Committee submitted two bills, one in relation to the office of Attorney General, defining his duties, and the other to exempt homesteads from forced sale.

On motion of Mr. Tingley, the bills relative to the several State officers, and the bill organizing the Supreme Court and classifying the Justics thereof, were severally made the special order of the day for Monday next.

A message was received from the Governor, returning to the Assembly, in which it originated, the "Joint Resolution on the subject of Public Printing," with his objections.

The Governor's objections are, first, that only two days, from the passage of the bill are given, in which to receive proposals; hence there could be little or no competition. Second, that there is no discretion left, in the bill, to the committee to reject all the bids, should they be deemed too high; but that the committee is forced to close a contract with the lowest bidder. This combination might force the State into a ruinous contract.

On motion, the House proceeded to reconsider the bill, and the same was laid on the table.

The House then adjourned to Monday, December 31st, at 10 oclock, A. M.

From the Sandwich Islands.

We are happy to acknowledge the receipt, from an officer of the sloop of war Preble, of the "Polynesian" of December 8th. From the same gentleman we learn the following particulars:

The Preble sailed from Honolulu on the 10th of December. She experienced fresh southerly winds until within five or six hundred miles of the coast.

The following is a list of her officers: Commander, James Glynn; Lieutenants, Edward C. Ward, Jr., and Albert T. Clary; Acting Lieutenants, Silas Bent and Edward Brinley; Purser, Henry Wilson; Assistant Surgeons, John L. Burtt and William Lowber; Midshipmen, Wilson McGunnegle, William F. Shunk and Edgar Broadhead; Boatswain, Benj Wakefield; Gunner, Henry Ward; Purser's Clerk, Thomas Langton.

The American barque Mary, Bailey, sailed for New Bedford, on the 10th of December, with a cargo of bone and oil. The Maria, Baker, was also to sail on the eleventh, for New Bedford, with a cargo of bone and oil. The Capitol was to sail on the eleventh, for Hong Kong, China.

On the 10th of December the following vessels arrived at Honolulu, from San Francisco, viz: American brigs Planet, and Saltillo, American barque Ocean Bird, and Hawaiian brig Union.

From the Polynesian we learn that the Consul of the Republic of Chile, departed for San Francisco, in the bark Don Quixote, on the 3d inst., having left the duties of his Consulate, until his return, in the hands of the Minister of Foreign Relations.

Mr. Everett, M. Dudoit and his family embarked in the same vessel.

In accordance with a proclamation of His Majesty, Thanksgiving Day was celebrated in the Sandwich Islands, on the thirty-first of December last.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Regatta.—The long-expected trial of skill and strength, in rowing, between the American, New-South Wales and Chilian boats and crews, which was to have taken place some two weeks since, came off on Sunday last. The prize was a purse of $100, and the entrance money of each boat, $10. The route to be gone over was from the stake boat, at Clark's Point, around Bird Island and back; and the whale boats American Eagle, Wild Irishman and Dewitt were the contestants. On her way round the Island, the American Eagle, which had gallantly kept the lead, was run aground, notwithstanding which she came in about one hundred yards ahead and won the purse. The names of the crew were Frederick Rotand, Antonio Ludlum, —— Van Pelt and —— unknown; coxswain, P. Simons. Time, 55 minutes.

Court of First Instance—Civil Matters—Hon. Wm. B Almond, Judge.—Adams vs. Joice.—Plaintiff bought lots, at auction, of defendant, and claimed a warrantee deed: defendant contended that he was only bound to deliver a quit claim deed, and on this issue the case was brought before the court. Jury found for defendant; but that plaintiff still had a right to a quit claim deed, on payment of the originial purchase money.

For several days previous to the departure of the late steamer, the court has been engaged in trying cases of debt, of a number of gentlemen who were about to take French leave of their creditors. In most instances, the claims were cancelled on the presentation of a warrant.

Alcalde's Court.—Maj. Finessee was held to bail, on a charge of riot, firing pistol shots, assaulting a policeman and snapping his pistol at the breast of the chief of police, with intent to kill.

Nothing further, of interest, has transpired, with the exception of examination and trials of a number of individuals for petit larceny, at the late fire.

Larcenies.—We are surprised to hear of the great number of larcenies that have been perpetrated in our city, during the last few weeks; there seems to have been a considerable influx of the light-fingered gentry, who accomplish their work in a finished style, and it behoves our citizens to be on the qui vive, and make an example of the offenders.

The store of Messrs. Middleton & Berry, on Jackson street, has been entered three several different times; and on Saturday morning last, about 8 o'clock, the store of Cleveland & Emery, on Pacific street, was entered by a thief, and the cash box, containing $60, and memorandums and receipts, was stolen. We have heard of a number of other complaints.

We learn that Clarence Livingston, Esq., has received the appointment of Commissioner of Deeds, for the States of New York and Pennsylvania.

Olympic Circus.—Mr. Rowe, the gentlemanly proprietor and manager, presents himself to-morrow evening for a benefit; and, inasmuch as the previous evening set apart for his benefit was stormy, and prevented the attendance of many of his friends, we hope it will be an additional inducement to give him a "bumper" on this occasion.

Mrs Rowe is nightly winning encomiums for grace; the clown improves upon acquaintance, and the agility and grace displayed in Master Rafiel's riding, indicates for him a future high position in his profession. In all our experience, we think we never have seen a stud of horses under better training than are those attached to the Olympic, of which we may speak hereafter. J. B. D.

[OFFICIAL.]

To the Ayuntamiento of San Francisco:

Gentlemen:—My attention has been called to a resolution purporting to have been signed by you on the 16th inst. and published in the newspapers, directing the city Attorney to institute legal proceedings against G. Q. Colton, Esq. Justice of the Peace, to restrain him from granting town lots, and "make him amenable by due process of law, for a misdemeanor and malfeasance in office"; and also to another resolution passed Dec 24th, 1849, and published in the same manner, which is in the following words:

"That the Town Council hereby declare all grants of town lots made and signed by G. Q. Colton, Justice of the Peace, void and of no effect, the same having been unauthorizedly and illegally made; and that this resolution be published in the Alta California and Pacific News for the space of thirty days."

In these proceedings of yours, gentlemen, you have exceeded your authority, and the scope of your legitimate functions, for the following reasons:

1st. The Justices of the Peace are, in no case, subject to your jurisdiction, censure or control.

2d. Because the validity of the grants referred to, is a question for the judiciary, not for you; and your declaration upon the subject, made without any hearing of the parties interested, and necessarily without due investigation, had not the weight even of a legal opinion, admitting that you are good lawyers.

3d. Because the law does not authorize you to hear complaints against the functionaries of the District, nor to condemn them without a hearing, nor to annul their official acts; much less does it justify you, either in your public capacity as an Ayuntamiento, or in your individual and private capacities to publish against them charges of official misconduct, until such charges have been duly and legally established.

The law under which you exist, if you have any legal existence, makes it the duty of the Prefect, and the Prefect alone, to cause not only the Justices of the Peace, but you also "to comply faithfully with their respective obligations, and see that they do not exceed their authority," and to hear any complaints that may be preferred against public officers, a duty which the Prefect of this District will be prompt to perform, under any and all circumstances that may require its exercise.

Against G. Q. Colton, Esq. Justice of the Peace, I have heard no complaint, not even from you, or any of you, with the exception of your printed handbills and newspaper publications; and, therefore, upon the subject of his official acts, I am not now called upon to express any opinion.

I should be lost to all sense of duty, if I were to suffer proceedings so unjust and illegal as those above referred to, to pass without observation. I have therefore the honor to inform you that the said resolutions are disapproved, and annulled, and this order is directed to be recorded in the archives of the Prefecture and published.

Horace Hawes.

Prefect of the District of san Francisco.

REAL ESTATE.

LOTS FOR SALE in the city of south San Francisco, offering the greatest inducements to persons recently arrived, who are desirous of locating themselves with superior advantages. The city of south san Francisco is situated two miles south of the city of san Francisco, immediately on the bay, having every advantage for the shipping, and is supplied with wholesome water in great abundance. A stream of sufficient quantity to supply both cities and all the shipping that ever may lay in their harbors, forms the northern boundaries of this place—is quite accessible and is about being conducted into reservoirs for that purpose. The harbor is more securely protected from the winds than the harbor of san Francisco, and ships of the heaviest burthen may at all times of the tide lay within a boat's length of the land at many points, and quite close along the whole front of the city, affording the best facilities to discharge cargo. The soil is free of dust, and is of a rich clay nature. There are extensive stone quarries, and springs of pure running water are in many places. The surrounding scenery is highly picturesque, and a more pleasant place for residences, or a more convenient place for business is not to be found on the bay. The only good road from the city of san Francisco to the Pueblo of san Jose passes through south san Francisco, crossing the mouth of Mission creek and the mouth of the stream of fresh water already alluded to On this road you travel along a beautiful valley of firm grass land to the puertesuelo, a distance of less than two miles. Persons desirous of purchasing lots, which will wholly equal in value those of the City of San Francisco and provide for themselves residences on moderate and easy terms can do so by calling at the office of the undersigned in Clay st., where full particulars will be given them. HUNTER & BROTHER,
Agent for the Proprietors.

A good House with everything necessary for the accommodation of visitors is now established at south San Francisco.

CAUTION.—Whereas, one J. A. Sutter has published a notice, in which he claims title to the land on the east bank of the Sacramento river, between the Feather river and the American Fork, I hereby notify the public that I am the only legal owner of the said land, under a warranty deed from J. A. Sutter himself, dated Aug. 10, 1843; and I therefore caution all persons that no legal title can be acquired to the same, or to any portion thereof, except through me. Justice to myself requires me to add that I shall hold the said J. A. Sutter legally responsible, both for the libel on my character, and the slander of my title, which his notice contains; and that if its publication is the result of a conspiracy to defraud me of my property, I shall take care that the offenders be brought to justice as soon as a criminal court before which they can be tried, is legally organized in this territory.

Any person desiring to satisfy himself of my title to the above land, is invited to call on W. H. Tiffany, at Boston, or on the undersigned, at his office, sacramento street, san Francisco. Hiram Grimes.

COUNTRY RESIDENCE for sale, near Honolulu, Oahu, S. I.—A convenient Family Dwelling House for sale, in Nuuanu Valley, a few hundred yards off the main road, commanding extensive views both seaward and inland, and about ten minutes easy ride from the port of Honolulu. It contains eight rooms, of the following dimensions; one room 22x21 feet, one room 22x19 feet, one room 18x14 feet, two rooms 18x12 feet each, one room 24x18 feet, 1 room 18x18, one room 22x8 feet; verandah 122 feet long in front, and extending nearly all round the premises; a detached cooking house, servants' house, three-stall stable, harness and coach house, fowl house, etc., all built of substantial materials, and in excellent order. The grounds comprise an area of nearly 2 acres, including a garden in front, tastefully laid out, and a grapery, both of which are stocked with an excellent selection of healthy young fruit trees.

Also, on sale, a few eligible lots, on the beach, at Honolulu, suitable for erecting stores, which will be offered at public auction on the 15th January next, if not previously disposed of by private contract. For further particulars, apply to xliv tf Starkey, Janion & co.

TOWN OF BOSTON.—Lots at the town of Boston, beautifully situated at the junction of the American Fork and Sacramento rivers, are now offered for sale. The town of Boston is only a few hundred yards above Sutter's Embarcadero, on the north side of the American Fork, and in the immediate vicinity of the gold mines, and from its situation possesses superior advantages for business purposes. The land which forms the site of the town is twelve feet above the highest water mark, and the river is twenty-three feet in depth at the banks. It is believed that no place offers greater inducements for investments than this town, as in addition to the above mentioned advantages it has a fine climate, good soil, with an abundance of excellent water, and is free from inundation at all seasons. The town has been surveyed by Mr. J. Halls, and laid out in a convenient manner, and a plan of it can be seen, and any other information relating to it obtained on application to
